FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

The writer spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 9 and 11, on C. & O., East. Thursday at Rothwell and Friday in Lexington.

SOLDIER.

We stopped here first. At the home of L. S. Vincent his bachelor brother was seriously sick.

Mr. Webster, the merchant, was in Louisville for medical treatment and has recently improved much. The prospect for deals in fire-brick lands and development is encouraging. The Louisville and Portsmouth F. B. Co. are operating a small, but fine plant near the tunnel west of Soldier on Triplette. The plant is lighted with electricity and the drills will be worked with it.

MOREHEAD.

We reached here about 2 o'clock Monday and stayed until early Wednesday morning, stopping at Cottage Hotel. Circuit Court convened that day. There is only one criminal case to be tried. The town and county are now without a licensed saloon. We heard mention made of blind tigers and a dead town; certainly, certainly.

Work on the Morehead and West Liberty Railroad will be resumed when—

A building boom is expected soon, and in fact it has begun.

At night we heard a few reports of pistols up the creek, but in town we saw no disorder or drunkenness. O, what a change some things do make in some towns. The attendants were orderly and genteel, but you know so many (nice men too) will damn and cuss a little now and then. We heard frogs croaking in the silence of night. We would rather hear a frog croak than a man cuss. Say, cusser, do you not feel ashamed of yourself? If you will do it, go out in the woods or on top of the mountain opposite the depot, where respectable and cultured people cannot hear you; perhaps the frogs and birds and crickets will not be ashamed of you; but going and being where you may remember: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain." This applies to Mt. Sterling as well as to Morehead and other important cities. (If we mistake not, on last Saturday afternoon, Mar. 14, 1903, near the National Hotel we heard a prominent bitizen, a church member, cuss.) We did not plan to hear it. We wish we had not.

On Tuesday morning we attended chapel exercises at Morehead Normal School in the new building. R. E. Neal was there. As we are accustomed to talk when before schools, we replied to Rev. Neal's short notice. The enrollment is a little over 300, and of these very few have gone home for spring work. There are 160 young men and women and children boarding to attend school. All can not be accommodated at the college dormitory, so the homes have received many.

Later in the day we paid our respects to Bracken Academy, the Baptist School recently established. The Baptist church building is used for the present. The enrollment here is 115, with an attendance of about 70, so we were informed by one of the teachers. We wish the Academy much success.

On Tuesday there was a meeting of the Democratic County Committee to arrange for the primary to nominate a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk. The entrance fee was placed at $30. There are two candidates, T. B. Tippet, the present clerk, and D. G. Ham.

There is a debt of about $1,100 on the Christian church building and parsonage. The congregation will endeavor to cancel this by monthly installments, and to aid this will discontinue offerings for various missionary enterprises during the year. A church debt is a millstone around the neck, a hindrance.

We were in the printery of the Normal School. Prof. E. W. McDiarmid is the editor of weekly paper, The Morehead Mountaineer, to which we referred previously. His office does considerable job printing. If he can not handle all the orders, we will be neighborly. Our best wishes attend the printery and the school.

Morehead is a going right ahead. Judge Cooper has made an order transferring her from a town of the sixth class to a fifth class, and Attorney B. S. Wilson will be the first mayor.

FARMERS.

Say, what will become of that new Alexander boat (which is nearing completion) when it gets to West Liberty? Will it back down the river, or stand on his hind legs and turn around? It is 70 feet long. A 70 foot channel is not found every day in those regions.

C. H. Kennedy was born February 24, 1837, in the State of New York. He came to Kentucky about the year 1863. He was married to Miss Martha A. Moore, of Bath, in 1871. They have one child living, Geo. F., who with his mother compose the firm M. A. Kennedy & Son, dealers in merchandise at Farmers. The father was once magistrate of his county and at time of his death was Chairman of Board of Trustees. He was a member of the Baptist church, a worthy, honorable and highly respected citizen. On Sunday, March 8, 1903, his spirit returned to God; the funeral service was held at the Baptist church on Tuesday by Dr. Williams, of Morehead, and the burial was in the Barnes graveyard near Salt Lick.

Rev. A. B. Wade, of Ashtabula, O., has been preaching at the Christian church for ten days up to Monday, March 16th, when it closed.

W. H. Thomas recently purchased the C. L. Clayton & Bro. stock of general merchandise. He is a nephew of Jno. R. Thomas, of Montgomery, and will be pleased to see the public.

We walked from Farmers to Salt Lick, 4 miles. Here are evidences of improvement. Natural gas in the well one mile away has not been piped to town. Home for the night.

ROTHWELL.

Spent Thursday here. Mrs. Wm. Rothwell's new hotel, with ten spacious rooms, will soon be completed. W. R. Tabor has had oversight of the erection. She is about 71 years of age. As the writer alone ate dinner she sat at table. She talked of the fire which last year destroyed her house and largely its contents, of the burdens and sorrows of life. Seeing that those things were on her heart, we directed her thought to the heavenly home, its associations and joys and rewards for toil and service. Like many old persons bereft of husband or wife, she signified her willingness to depart, if the Lord so willed. This reminded us of our aged great uncle and aunt, Billy and Sibbie Lacey, of Hazel Green, (saints of the Lord) who in the days of our childhood would visit our home. They had lived together (childless) for more than 60 years, and desired to be united in death. Billy did not wait long "at the beautiful gate" for Sibbie. Sam Tabor is still at Tavares, Florida, but expects to return home in about a month.

Florida, but expects to return home in about a month.

W. R. Tabor has been in charge of the C. & O. office for 20 years. He is a prosperous, hustling merchant and we always enjoy our chats with him. Home at night.

LEXINGTON.

We went on Friday morning on business. Cherishing pleasant memories of our stay for more than five years at Kentucky University, we attended chapel exercises at the College of the Bible, responding to Pres. McGarvey's invitation to lead in prayer. In this college there are 80 matriculates, and about 40 of the Arts College matriculates take the Bible course. It was a genuine pleasure to again meet Profs. McGarvey and Grubbs at whose feet we sat and studied the Bible, (not what some men had written about the Bible). O! that the Theological Seminaries and Colleges would teach the Bible. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

We dined at the home of Pres. B. A. Jenkins, of Kentucky University, and enjoyed also the social converse. We could write much, but here we pause. What next? Wait a little longer and you'll find out. B. W. TRIMBLE.

Official Count

of the vote in the Mt. Sterling Free Gift Library contest gave the Library and handsome book case worth about $600 to the Mt. Sterling Public High School. The vote stood as follows: Public School, 2,611,209; Red Men, 2,221,217; Miscellaneous, 1,515,371. The Public School winning by 389,992. The trustees, faculty, children and friends are to be congratulated for having added this fine collection of books to their library.

Mail orders for the souvenir buttons, being sold in the interest of the Kentucky World's Fair Building fund, should be sent to the Secretary of the Kentucky Exhibit Association, R. E. Hughes, Louisville. One dollar must accompany each order. The buttons are valuable souvenirs and everybody will be proud to wear one. The business man, the lawyer, the doctor, the representative of every class, should buy one of the buttons, if he does not contemplate subscribing more than one dollar to the fund.

The Original Library Contest.

The Committee in the "original library" contest after wrangling since February 28th. over the counting of about 20,000 coupons representing over 200,000 votes, clipped from a special half sheet edition of the Sentinel-Democrat and on that account claimed to be irregular and invalid, and which were voted for the Benevolent Order of Elks, have finally, at the instance of the trustees of the Public School settled the controversy by awarding the prizes on the face of the returns, but stating in their award the facts about as above given. The first prize was awarded to the Benevolent Order of Elks. The second prize to the City School and third prize to the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Fashion's Stellar Event.

Brilliant Opening Monday, March 23

Of Central Kentucky's

Magnificent Department Store.

Announcement.

After weeks of preparation we beg to announce our formal Spring Opening on Monday morning, March 23. Both the European and American markets have been searched and will contribute their best creations for this grand occasion. It will be a superb exhibition, revealing in brilliant ensemble every known fashion and style conception in women's wear for the spring and summer season. Truly a noteworthy gathering of style and quality; limitless in scope, unequalled in representation, magnificent in detail.

There will be elaborate floral and electrical decorations and in the evening Saxton's well-known band will render a delightful concert.

Kaufman, Straus & Co.

12 and 14 West Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

REMOVALS.

J. P. Hardin and family of Sharpsburg, have moved to this city and will occupy the Woodson Shront property on Mitchell Ave. James Kincaid has moved from Ewington to the Sam Greene farm near Sideview.

Jno. G. Roberts and wife have moved to the Burroughs residence on East Main Street.

H. H. Barnes and family have left the National Hotel and now occupy their residence. He continues in charge of the Hotel.

C. T. Evans and family have returned to their farm.

Mr. Jas. Roberts and daughter will move to the Tipton property on Howard Avenue about April 1st.

Unusual, But True.

On Saturday, at the farm of J. D. Gay, a sow ran squealing out of the barn. Examination showed that a cane as large as the average steel umbrella handle had entered her mouth and punctured the flesh near root of tongue and was protruding from her mouth. Before she could be caught the cane had been bitten off. Mr. J. B. Gay with a pair of wire fence nippers took hold of the cane near the root of the tongue and pulled it out. It had entered twenty inches.

New Goods.

Our spring purchase embraces the largest and best line of white goods ever shown in this city. All desirable and stylish patterns in oxford cloths can be seen at our store. If its new and up-to-date, we have it. 33 3 GRUBBS, HAZELRIGG & Co.

Primary.

May 9th is the time fixed by Rowan county Democrats to hold a primary to name a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk.

March Court Day.

About 500 cattle on the market, among them were some good steers. Trade was slow, buyers saying prices were too high. Some extra good 950-pound steers sold at $5.15; good steers sold at $4.75; yearlings at 4 1/4 to 4 1/2; heifers at 3 to 3 1/2; cows at 2 1/2 to 3 1/2; the latter price for some nice fat cows; bulls at 3c. A few 75-pound shoats of fair quality at 6c. A large crowd at the pens but trade extremely dull.

SALES.

Conner & Horton sold seven 950-pound steers, and they were extra good, to W. A. Sutton at $5.15.

J. W. Downing, of Fayette county, bought some 1,000-pound fat cows and 700-pound fat heifers at 3 1/2 cents.

Connor & Horton sold to Albert S. Kidmore, of Bourbon county, 33 800-pound steers at $4.75.

J. R. Crockett bought 15 heifers of Arnett & Allen at $25 per head, about 3 1/2 cents.

Arnett & Allen sold two yoke of work cattle to Tilton & Son at $85 and $90, about 4 1/2 cents.

Thos. Denton, of Lexington, bought a bunch of 500-pound heifers at 3 1/2 cents.

Mules were in demand at higher prices at least $5 than last court. 16 hand mules, heavy, at 175 to $180; 15 1/2 hand mules at 140 to $165; 15 hand mules at 120 to $135; small mules at 85 to $110. A great many sold during the day.

Horses were also in demand and sold readily, plugs at 50 to $75; good horses at 100 to $125. No fine horses sold.

Oil.

A fine oil well came in last week on the O. W. Burns farm in the corporate limits of West Liberty. Look out for a boom.

TRIPLE CHIEF

Nine years old; 16 1/2 hands high; blood bay with black points; white in face as characteristic of Old Indian; tail well set; long ears; extra limbs and feet. Bred by Fletcher Cheatham, Carlisle, Ky. Triple Chief is a horse of finest finish; a Hackney in action, and full of speed.

TRIPLE CHIEF will make the season of 1903, at Sunnyside, three and one-half miles from Mt. Sterling, on Grassy Lick Turnpike, at $20 For a Living Colt.

Money due when colt is foaled or mare parted with, or bred to another horse. Lien on colt until service fee is paid.

TRIPLE CHIEF by Sims' Clark Chief 2110. First dam by Harrison's Chief, 3841; Second dam by Old Indian Chief, 832; Third dam by Collier's Taylor.

Sims' Clark Chief sire of Croxie, 2114; Tony Newal, 2119; Woodford Chief, 2122; and others in 2130. Sims' Clark Chief by Old Clark Chief, 89. First dam Virgie by Alexander's Abdallah, sire of Goldsmith's Maid, 2114.

Harrison Chief, sire of George L., 2126 1/2; George T., 2136; Jennie W., 2127 1/2; and of the dams of J. H. L., 2128 1/2; Lou Chief, the highest priced saddle mare that ever lived; King, the sire of $10,000 Glorious Red Cloud; Bourbon Chief, the sire of $5,000 Montgomery Chief and of Emily, the wonderful Show Mare at the World's Fair and Madison Square.

Indian Chief, sire of Red Cloud, Kentucky Chief, Lady de Jarnett, who first drew national attention to our State as producing the type known as Fancy Saddlers and Harness Horses. Indian's blood is in both Glorious Red Cloud and Montgomery Chief.

Students of Kentucky Harness Horses disagree as to the relative greatness of Harrison and his half-brother, Sims' Clark Chief (Old John), as producers. One or the other holds first place with no other contestant, save Old Indian Chief. Triple Chief should settle the question for this generation, representing Old John as his sire, Harrison through his dam and Old Indian through his 2nd dam, a combination of blood lines unique, which must perpetuate the greatness of the three sires.

The intelligent breeder of to-day recognizes four essentials in the successful competition for honors and prices—individuality, action, size and speed. The farmer demands size for animals left at home. We feel, in offering Triple Chief for public service, that he has no equal in these essentials, nor could have if blood lines are a guarantee. He stands 16 1/2 hands, braced by two dams 16 hands, and throws size, as his colts testify.

Old John is without a peer as the sire of harness horses, roadsters and coach horses. Harrison combines the above with a grace and finish that made him and his get the show horses of the World. A span of geldings, sons of these two sires sold for $4,000.

Glorious Red Cloud, the $10,000 World Winner in the show ring, was by a son of Harrison, and his dam by a son of Indian. Montgomery Chief, the $5,000 product of our own county, is the result of the cross of Harrison's and Indian's blood.

No other living sire offers these three coveted blood lines, Old John, Harrison and Indian. We predict that Triple Chief will be crowned King of Kentucky Sires. His colts, his individuality, and his ancestral achievements are the guarantee. At the same place my celebrated Black Jack, King of Halls, 16 hands, will make the season at $5.00. Terms same as Triple Chief.

Mares grazed at 10 cents per day. Will not be responsible for accidents or escapes. Address, SHIPLEY MASON, Rural Route No. 1, Grassy, Ky.

Caleb Powers Wants Money.

Caleb Powers in jail awaiting his coming trial May 7th, has sent out another letter to the Republican post masters asking that they make a canvass among friends and raise money to aid in his defense as before. He claims this is not a personal prosecution as much as it is a trial of the Republican party.
